You are advised to approach the above public authority for further information regarding the matter and for any grievance regarding non-receipt of information from above cited transferee public authority. Regarding point 4, it is stated that the information sought is too vague & wide. Regarding point 1, it is stated that the requisite information is not held by this office. Section 6(1) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 provides that a person who desires to obtain any information shall make a request to the public information officer of the public authority concerned. Section 6(3) provides that where an application is made to a public authority requesting for any information which is held by another public authority or the subject matter of which is more closely connected with the functions of another public authority, the public authority to which such application is made shall transfer the application to that other public authority. The information sought by you is scattered with more than one other public authority. Therefore, your application is not to be transferred to another public authority under section 6(3) of the Right to Information Act, 2005.

2. You may access details of websites of Central Ministries/Departments as well as State Governments at www.goindirectory.nic.in. Response in respect of this office, if any, will be provided in due course.
