

High Commission of India Malta

High Commission of India in Malta organized the Constitution Day of India celebrations at the prestigious Malta College of Arts, Science and Technology (MCAST) in Malta yesterday. The event was attended by policy makers, academics and other opinion makers.

Speakers at the programme talked about the rich democratic traditions of India. The programme was well attended and appreciated by all the participants.

