India-Egypt Relations

India and Egypt, two of the world's oldest civilizations, have enjoyed a history of close contact from ancient times. Even prior to the Common Era, Ashoka's edicts refer to his relations with Egypt under Ptolemy-II. In modern times, Mahatma Gandhi and Saad Zaghloul shared common goals on the independence of their countries, a relationship that was to blossom into an exceptionally close friendship between Gamal Abdel Nasser and Jawaharlal Nehru, leading to a Friendship Treaty between the two countries in 1955. The Non-Aligned Movement was a natural concomitant of this relationship.

Political Relations

India and Egypt share close political understanding based on long history of contacts and cooperation on bilateral, regional and global issues. There is a new momentum in our relations and a shared desire to take it to a higher level. Since the 1980s, there have been four Prime Ministerial visits from India to Egypt: Shri Rajiv Gandhi (1985); Shri P. V. Narasimha Rao (1995); Shri I. K. Gujral (1997); and Dr. Manmohan Singh (2009, NAM Summit). From the Egyptian side, President Hosni Mubarak visited India in 1982, in 1983 (NAM Summit) and again in 2008. High level exchanges with Egypt continued after the 2011 Egyptian Revolution and President Mohamed Morsy visited India in March 2013. EAM visited Cairo in March 2012 and the Egyptian Foreign Minister visited India in December 2013. After the new government led by President Sisi took over in June 2014, EAM paid a visit to Cairo in August 2015. PM Shri Narendra Modi met President Sisi on the sidelines of UNGA, New York in September 2015. Their talks focussed on counter terrorism, deepening economic engagement, and regional issues. PM Modi and President Mukherjee met President Abdel Fattah Al-Sisi during the Third India-Africa Forum Summit in New Delhi in October 2015. President Sisi paid a State visit to India in September 2016 accompanied by Mr. Sameh Shoukry, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Tarek Kabil, Minister of Trade and Industry and Mr. Amr El Garhy, Minister of Finance. A Joint Statement was issued outlining the three pillars of Political-Security cooperation, economic engagement & scientific collaboration and cultural & people-people ties as the basis of bilateral partnership.

2015 saw five Ministerial level visits from India to Egypt; which included Shri Prakash Javadekar who participated in the 15th African Ministerial Conference on Environment (AMCEN) in March 2015; Special Envoy of PM, Shri Mukhtar Abbas Naqvi met President Sisi in July 2015; Shipping Minister Shri Nitin Gadkari, represented India at the opening of the new Suez Canal in August 2015 and met President Sisi; and EAM Smt. Sushma Swaraj visited Cairo and met President Sisi, Foreign Minister and Secretary General of League of Arab States in August 2015 (two MoUs on Tourism and Science and Technology cooperation were signed during the visit); Shri Mukhtar Abbas Naqvi, Minister of State for Parliamentary and Minority Affairs participated in the 25th International Conference of Supreme Council of Islamic Affairs at Luxor, Egypt in November 2015. Dr. Shawki Alam, Grand Mufti of Egypt participated in the World Sufi Forum, New Delhi, March 2016. Mr. Sugato Bose, MP, visited Egypt in May 2016.

Deputy National Security Advisor Dr. Arvind Gupta visited Egypt in July 2015 and held talks with his Egyptian counterpart. Egyptian NSA Ms. Faiza Abou el-Naga met NSA and Defence Secretary at New Delhi in December 2015 and a MoU on cooperation between the Secretariats of NSCs of both countries was signed during the meeting. The 11th round of Foreign Office Consultations was held at Delhi in December 2015. The 6th Joint Defence Committee met in New Delhi in April 2016.

Economic Relations

Egypt has traditionally been one of India's most important trading partners in the African continent. The India-Egypt Bilateral Trade Agreement has been in operation since March 1978 and is based on the Most Favoured Nation clause. The total bilateral trade increased almost 60% from US$ 3 billion in 2009-10 to US$ 5.45 billion in 2012-13 followed by a declining trend thereafter, decreasing in 2015-16 to US$ 3.5 billion. India is the ninth largest trading partner of Egypt – the seventh largest export destination and eleventh largest import source for Egypt. India's imports from Egypt were worth US$ 1.2 billion during FY 2015-16. Indian exports to Egypt during FY 2015-16 have been recorded at US$ 2.3 billion. The top five Indian exports during FY 2015-16 were meat, vehicles, cotton yarn, petroleum and parts of vehicles while the top five Indian imports were crude petroleum, rock phosphate, raw cotton, citrus fruit and fruit seeds.

50 Indian companies are operating in Egypt with a combined investment of almost US$ 3 billion. Approximately half are joint ventures or wholly owned Indian subsidiaries, the rest operate through their representative offices and execute projects for Government organizations. Major Indian investments in Egypt include TCI Sanmar (with a value of US$ 1.3 billion and about to launch a new production line worth of US$ 280 million), Alexandria Carbon Black, Dabur India, Egypt-India Polyester Company (EIPET) and SCIB Paints. Indian companies also execute projects in railway signalling, pollution control, water treatment, irrigation, anti-collision devices etc. Indian Pharmaceutical major Hetero Drugs Ltd launched a JV in May 2015 to produce a drug used in the treatment Hepatitis-C which was highly appreciated by the Egyptian government. Indian companies are present in apparel, agriculture, chemicals, energy, automobiles, retail and others. Overall, these companies provide direct and indirect employment to approximately 35,000 Egyptians.

Egyptian investments in India include EISewedy Electrometer (US$ 30 million in Noida); KAPCI car paints (US$ 20 million in Karnataka); and Bitumode Waterproofing (US$ 3 million in Dahej).

At present, India provides a US$ 10 billion LoC to the African countries under IAFS-III. The grants-in-aid projects include: Pan Africa Tele-medicine and Tele-education project in Alexandria University, Solar electrification project in Agaween village and Vocational Training Centre for textile technology in Shoubra, Cairo which have all been completed and IT Centre in Al Azhar University which is under implementation.

Technical cooperation and assistance has been a major part of our bilateral relationship. Since the year 2000, over 700 Egyptian officials have benefited from ITEC programmes. In the year 2014-2015 & 2015-2016 alone, 210 Egyptians underwent training conducted under a number of programmes including ITEC, India-Africa Forum Summit and CV Raman Fellowship. So far, 16 Egyptian diplomats have attended PCFD at FSI and 44 Egyptian scholars and scientists have been benefited from CV Raman International Fellowship for African Researchers. In 2016, 110 slots have been allotted to Egypt by MEA under ITEC. In the field of scientific cooperation, ICAR and the Agricultural Research Center of Egypt are working in the field of agricultural research, and 'Science & Technology' cooperation is implemented through biennial Executive Programmes.

Cultural Relations

The Maulana Azad Centre for Indian Culture (MACIC) was set up in Cairo in 1992 to promote cultural cooperation between the two countries, through the implementation of the Cultural Exchange Programme (CEP). The Centre, in addition to popularizing Indian culture through Hindi, Urdu, Yoga classes, dance classes, seminars, film shows and exhibitions, also organizes cultural festivals.

India by the Nile 2016, the annual Indian cultural festival, was held from 21 April to 7 May in five cities of Egypt. The Festival is produced on public private partnership. Over 20,000 Egyptians from different walks of life participated directly in the various events of the IBN 2016. The festival is billed as the 'biggest foreign cultural festival' in Egypt.

In its outreach activities, the Indian Cultural Centre also organizes India Day(s) in Egyptian governorates and universities on regular basis. MACIC has been organizing the Glimpses of India painting competition for Egyptian children for the last 22 years. An overwhelming response was received in the 2016 edition of the painting competition with an unprecedented participation by over 10,100 schoolchildren from 1092 schools. The competition was held simultaneously in eight Governorates in Egypt for the first time. As part of the 155th Birth Anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore, a week-long celebration was held in Cairo. The Mission also commemorated the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi in October 2016 in Cairo and Port Said (the only city Gandhi visited in Egypt). In March 2012, a portrait of Tagore was unveiled at the House of Poetry by the EAM and the Egyptian Minister of Culture.

Indian cultural groups have also participated at the International Festival for Drums and Traditional Arts, Samaa International Festival for Chanting and Spiritual Music, and Aswan International Festival for Cultural Arts. India was the Guest of Honour country at the International Drums Festival 2016. India was also the Guest of Honour country at the Summer Festival at Bibliotheca Alexandrina.

A MoU to establish the first ICCR Chair was signed with the Ain Shams University in March 2016 and commenced in September 2016. The Indian Chair was established in the Bioinformatics section headed by an eminent Indian professor from JNU.

Yoga has gained popularity in Egypt with 45 schools in Cairo, besides centers in other cities. The International Day of Yoga 2016 was celebrated with enthusiasm in Cairo, Ismailia and Alexandria. There is also a growing interest in traditional medicine.

The strong ties between India and Egypt are evident from the affection towards India amongst the population. Three streets in Cairo are named after Indian leaders namely, Mahatma Gandhi, Pandit Nehru and Dr. Zakir Hussein. There are two busts of Mahatma Gandhi – one in Cairo at the Supreme Council of Culture and the other one in Alexandria at the Bibliotheca Alexandria.

Indian Community

At present, the Indian community in Egypt numbers at around 3600, most of whom are concentrated in Cairo. There are also a small number of families in Alexandria, Port Said and Ismailia. A majority of the Indians are either employed with Indian companies or are professionals with various multinationals. The Mission provides assistance to the Indian Community Association in Egypt (ICAE) and works closely with members of the community.
