

India-Antigua and Barbuda Bilateral Relations

Antigua and Barbuda was a British colony till 1981 when it became independent as a constitutional monarchy with Queen of UK being the Head of State, represented by a Governor General. It is a Westminster-type parliamentary system with an elected legislature. The Senate has 17 members appointed by Governor General including 10 government Senators, 4 opposition Senators, 1 Senator (Outstanding person category), 1 Barbuda Senator (Barbuda Council) and 1 Barbuda Senator (inhabitant of Barbuda). The last election was held on March 21, 2018 and the ruling Antigua Labour Party led by Gaston Browne retained power by winning 15 of the 17 seats. The opposition United Progressive Party could win only 1 seat and one seat was won by Barbuda People's Movement.

India and Antigua & Barbuda enjoy warm and friendly relations with similarity of views on most issues of common concern. In a foreign policy statement, Antigua & Barbuda (A&B) has expressed its desire to further develop relations with India. There is no structured or institutional dialogue mechanisms between the two countries.

Indian High Commissioner to Guyana is accredited to Antigua & Barbuda.
