Telephone Conversation between PM and Prime Minister of Bhutan
April 16, 2020

The Prime Minister of Bhutan had a telephone conversation with the Prime Minister of India on April 16, 2020.

The Prime Minister of Bhutan congratulated the Prime Minister of India on his birthday. They discussed the coronavirus pandemic and the need for international cooperation.

They also discussed India’s efforts to contain the virus and the support it is providing to Bhutan. They agreed to continue to work closely together to address the challenges of the pandemic.

SAARC countries are working together to fight the pandemic. Bhutan and India are ready to support each other in this battle.

Both leaders reaffirmed their commitment to the principles of SAARC and the Indian Constitution.

The conversation was held in English.

DISCLAIMER: This is an approximate translation. The original is available in English on MEA’s website and may be referred to as the official press release.