KAILASH MANASAROVAR YATRA - 2012

GUIDELINES

A) OVERVIEW

1. Kailash Manasarovar Yatra is known for its religious value, cultural significance, physical beauty and thrilling nature. It is undertaken by hundreds of people every year. Holding significance for the Hindus as the abode of Lord Shiva, it holds religious importance also for the Jains and the Buddhists.
2. The Yatra is organized by the Ministry of External Affairs every year between May and September. In 2012, the Yatra is planned to be arranged from 29 May to 25 September in 16 batches. Each batch will comprise a maximum of 60 qualified yatris, including a Liaison Officer to manage the batch. The duration of the 'Yatra proper' will be 27 days. Before beginning the 'Yatra proper', the yatris need to spend 3-4 days in Delhi to complete various formalities, such as undergoing mandatory medical examinations, obtaining Chinese visa, etc.
3. The Yatra is open to eligible Indian citizens who wish to proceed to Kailash-Manasarovar for religious purposes.
4. Given the extremely arduous nature of the Yatra, only those who are physically fit and healthy should apply to undertake the Yatra. It involves trekking at high altitudes of up to 19,500 feet, under inhospitable conditions, including extreme cold and rugged terrain, and may prove hazardous for those who are not physically and medically fit. Yatris undertake the Yatra purely at their own volition, cost, risk and consequences. [\[INDEX\]](#)

B) NATURE OF YATRA

1. The Kailash Manasarovar Yatra is open to those qualified Indian citizens who wish to proceed to Kailash-Manasarovar for religious purposes. [\[INDEX\]](#)

- g. In the eventuality of a Yatri being disqualified on medical grounds at Gunji, it will not be possible to refund the charges levied by KMVN. [\[INDEX\]](#)

D) SELECTION PROCESS

- 1. The selection of Yatris will be done by the Ministry of External Affairs.
- 2. Yatris are selected through a fair computer-generated random gender-balanced selection process.

3. Spouses will be automatically selected (provided he/she has also submitted his/her application for the Yatra and this fact is clearly indicated in the relevant column of the application form) subject to clearing the medical test.
4. Selected persons will be informed about their inclusion in a particular batch 3-4 weeks before their scheduled departure.
5. Selected applicants will be required to deposit a non-refundable amount of Rs.5,000.00 (Rupees Five Thousand only) directly into Account No.90361010002716 of the Kumaon Mandal Vikas Nigam Limited held with Syndicate Bank, 21, Barakhamba Road, New Delhi, IFSC Code No.0009036, by a specific deadline to confirm their participation in a particular batch. Original proof of this deposit is required to be submitted to the Ministry of External Affairs along with the confirmation for participation.
6. Selected yatris are required to assemble in New Delhi 3-4 days in advance of the Yatra.
7. After the selected yatris report for Yatra in New Delhi, they undergo a thorough medical examination at the Delhi Heart & Lung Institute and the ITBP Base Hospital, New Delhi. The parameters of medical examination are decided by the ITBP Base Hospital, keeping the requirements of Kailash Manasarovar Yatra in mind.
8. Only those selected yatris who qualify the two medical examinations in New Delhi are allowed to proceed for the Yatra.
9. A third medical test to ascertain reactions to altitude trekking will be done by ITBP at Gunji after 5 days of the Yatra proper at a height of 3500 metres. A yatri who is found medically unfit in Gunji will not be permitted to continue the Yatra.
10. The findings and the recommendations of the DHLI and ITBP medical personnel both in Delhi and Gunji will be final and binding.
11. In the eventuality of a yatri being disqualified on medical grounds at Gunji, it will not be possible to refund the charges levied by KMVN. [\[INDEX\]](#)

H) DURATION

1. The duration of the Yatra proper will be 27 days. In addition, Yatri will need to spend 3-4 days in New Delhi to obtain visas, undergo a comprehensive medical examination and complete financial formalities. The Government of Delhi will provide accommodation for the 3-4 days' stay in Delhi. [\[INDEX\]](#)

I) CAUTION

1. Yatra is extremely arduous (more than the Vaishnodevi/Amarnath routes), involves trekking at high altitudes up to 19,500 feet, under inhospitable conditions including extreme cold and rugged terrain and may prove hazardous for those who are not physically or medically fit. The Indian Mountaineering Foundation has recognised the Kailash Manasarovar Yatra as a trekking expedition. There is a considerable element of risk to life and property.
2. Pilgrims undertake the Yatra at their own volition, cost, risk and consequences.
3. KMVN also provides insurance against accident during the Yatra for each Yatri through United India Insurance Company Limited for an amount of Rupees Five Lakh.
4. Government shall not have any obligation to bring the mortal remains of the pilgrim across the border for cremation in the Indian side, in case of death on the Chinese side. All Yatris are, therefore, required to sign a Consent Form (<http://mea.gov.in/mystart.php?id=5203>) for cremation of mortal remains on the Chinese side in case of death. [\[INDEX\]](#)

SIGNATURE OF APPLICANT

KAILASH MANASAROVAR YATRA – 2012

DECLARATION BY APPLICANT

1. I understand that Kailash Manasarovar Yatra is a high altitude trekking expedition under inhospitable conditions, which may involve serious risk to the person or property of the Yatri. I am undertaking the Kailash Manasarovar Yatra at my own volition, cost, risk and consequences.
2. I understand that my application will be rejected and not processed if any column is not filled in or if it is incomplete in any other respect.
3. I understand that if I have given wrong information in my application, this will be ground for disqualification from the Yatra and for forfeiture of deposit paid to Kumaon Mandal Vikas Nigam (KMVN).
4. I understand that the decision of the ITBP medical authorities either in Delhi or in Gunji is final and cannot be challenged, that in the event of my being disqualified on medical grounds by the competent medical authorities in Delhi, I will forfeit the non-refundable deposit paid to KMVN, and that in the event of my being disqualified on medical grounds by the competent medical authorities at Gunji, I will forfeit the entire amount paid to KMVN as Yatra charges and I shall not claim any refund thereof.
5. I undertake that I will bear full responsibility for expenses on emergency medical treatment as well as emergency air evacuation, if the need arises during the Yatra.
6. I understand that the decisions taken by the Liaison Officer to maintain security and discipline during the Yatra will be final and binding including any decision to repatriate any Yatri. In such circumstances I will forfeit the entire amount paid to KMVN as Yatra charges and I shall not claim any refund thereof.
7. I further undertake that in any circumstances after confirming my participation, if I am unable to proceed on Yatra or to complete the Yatra for any reason, my entire deposit will be forfeited with no possibility of refund.
